Dear Bill,

Here is a copy of the copyright of WHITEWASH: THE REPORT ON THE WARREN REPORT, before revision, when it was titled as the paper shows. The revisions, really a few additions, were minor and in no way relate to the current matter.

I cannot immediately find the ACLU statement following my appearance before the grand jury. However, it is quoted in the correspondence. I herewith send you a set of that. The letter to "Ross" is the one I mentioned to you. It is to Ross Yockey, of the States-Item.

Pleasant evening. Thanks. It ended for me a little after 4 a.m. Those shows wind me up so I drove to Wilmington, without feeling at all sleepy, and finally fell asleep some time after I got in bed, listening to the tape rerun of the last two hours originally aired from 12-2.

Best regards,

Harold Weisberg
